Dear Dr. Gayola,

Greetings from The Teacher's Gallery (TTG)! We are a social enterprise that aims to empower Filipino educators in building inclusive communities. As part of our advocacy, we recognize that all learners start to develop their individual potential at young age and it is crucial for us, educators, to bring out the best in our learners for them to know the never-ending possibilities and share their excitement of discoveries.

That is why we have invited our dear friends and colleagues specializing in Early Childhood curriculum. One of our keynote speaker is Miss Andrea Stavrakas, M.A., a Special Education Inclusion Specialist (K-5) in Wellesley Public Schools in Massachusetts, USA. Also, she is an Adjunct Instructor who develops professional development or graduate courses for teachers, and a known Academic Coach and Mentor for special education teachers and teaching assistants for students with disabilities.

We know our work as educators are complex but definitely rewarding, and to help us more take into account and understand the diversity of our young learners, we invite you and the teachers in your Division to join us in our Seminar-Workshop titled: Inclusion Strategies for 21st Century Early Childhood Teachers on August 17-19, 2018 at Tagaytay International Convention Center.
