Dear Maam,

Greetings from CLAPI!

The Children's Literature Association of the Philippines, Inc. (CLAPI) is a non-profit and non-stock organization is now a duly accredited PRC-CPD Provider both for teachers and librarians. It's office is located in Rm. 301 National Library of the Philippines, T.M. Kalaw, Manila.

Founded in 1965, it's mission is to promote reading habits and provide relevant training to teachers of English, Filipino and other related subject areas, school hub librarians, reading enthusiasts, and early childhood practitioners. The ultimate goals of the organization is to make children's literature come alive and sustain the creative energy, enthusiasm, and imagination creating and bringing library books to children's youth and lovers of literature.

CLAPI envisions itself to sustain the needs of Teachers, School Librarians and other reading advocates to promote their continuing professional development and to recognize their roles as agents of change by implementing formal, informal and lifelong learning programs.

On March 8, 2018, at 8:00 am to 12 noon, will hold a forum with the theme "Teacher And School Librarian Partnership in the Implementation of the K-3 Program" M. Hizon Elementary School Auditorium located at Jose Abad Santos, Tondo, Manila.

Our target participants are public and private school administrators, LRMDS, ALS, and Reading Supervisors, Teacher/School and HUB Librarians, Reading Teacher (English and Filipino), Writers, Reading Enthusiasts and ALS Implementers. We anticipate that at the end of the lecture-forum, our participants will be able to examine the principles that guide developmentally appropriate practices of the K-3 Program; present practical considerations in implementing a developmentally appropriate program for K-3 learners; realize the functions of the school libraries and the division library hubs as co-partners in implementing the K-3 program.

In this connection, may we invite the above mentioned participants to attend our forum. Participants will be charged Php 300.00 to defray for expenses for snacks, certificates and token for the resource speakers.

Thank you very much for continuous whole-hearted support to our association. We hope and pray that you will be with us on that particular day.

Very truly yours,

LEONILA S. GALVEZ
