All memorandums and advisories being issued during the pendency of the ECQ relative to loan applications or monetization do not intend to amend, revise or replace the original rules or guidelines thereto. Only some of the mechanisms or procedures were relaxed to facilitate convenience and expediency in respect to social distancing and prescribed protocols recently being implemented pursuant to the Bayanihan to Heal As One Act, but all original requirements or eligibilities set forth by law or rules in order to avail loan or monetization remain enforceable and mandatory. Soon as the ECQ is lifted, these modified mechanisms or procedures shall be automatically reverted, and these memorandums and advisories shall also be deemed repealed.
