DR. JOEL TORRECAMPO
Superintendent
Department of Education
Division of Marikina City

Dear Dr. Torrecampo;

Greetings of peace!

We are pleased to inform you that DACMI, the Migrants Ministry of the Diocese of Antipolo has a program for the Sons and Daughters of OFWs known as the Sons and Daughters of OFW Formation Program (SDOFP).

Part of these are the activities we have invited your division to participate in such as: Anak-OFW Congress, Migration Quiz Bee Contest and the search for Gawad-Anak OFW, the search for Ten Outstanding Sons and Daughters of OFW Student Achievers Award (TOSDOSA).

Also, we would like to now, invite you to one of the more crucial component of the program, that is the Orientation and Retooling of teachers and guidance counselors to be able for them to implement the program in their particular schools.

The said activity will be held on 30 August at the St. Paul Parish, 8-5 p.m. Corner Lilac Rainbow Sts. SSS Village, Concepcion II Marikina City.

A minimal fee of two hundred fifty pesos will be charged to cover for materials and one merienda and lunch. The afternoon's merienda will be subsidized by DACMI.

For more information and confirmation call 5840979, cel no. 09189430456, Amie Coronel, DACMI Secretariat.

Thank you.

Yours in Christ,

BRO. DARIO CORONEL
Coordinator
