DR. SHERYLL T. GAYOLA
Schools Division Superintendent
Schools Division Office Marikina City

Dear Dr. Gayola,

Greetings of peace and love from Our Lady of Perpetual Succor College!

As you know, for the past eight months, the education industry has been subject to major changes and adjustments that are unprecedented. In keeping with these changes in what we now call the “New Normal”, OLOPSC is making its seminars and other events more accessible to students by going online.

Starting this November, our College Division will be hosting “D.E.E.P.: Digital Education for Empowerment Project,” a series of free webinars that we believe will be beneficial to Senior High School students in Marikina City. These webinars will provide practical and useful knowledge that will help prepare them for the challenges today and of the future. Details of the activity are provided in the e-poster attached.

That being said, we hope to reach both public and private schools in Marikina for this project. Your endorsement on this will be much appreciated as this will help us achieve our objectives mentioned above.

Thank you very much for your usual support. Stay safe and God bless!

Best regards,
