DIVISION OF CITY SCHOOLS
MARIKINA

Dear Mr. Torrecampo ,

Greetings from the Philippine Red Cross-Marikina City Chapter!

The Philippine Red Cross (PRC) supports the advocacy on HIV and AIDs awareness through the implementation of various programs and activities including HIV and Aids awareness campaigns. With this year's Theme is "Know your Status" to encourage everyone to get HIV test and Know one's status.

In commemoration of this year's World AIDs Day, we will conduct HIV & AIDs Symposium on December 12, 2018, 10 am to 12 noon at Blue Wave Mall. Speakers from our Headquarters and another speaker living with HIV are some of our speakers to share insights about this important matter. Further, may we seek your utmost support by encouraging all Private High Schools in Marikina to participate in the above activity by sending a minimum of 20 high school student or more. Candle lighting and Red Ribbon pinning are also part of the activity.

Please know that Red Cross as an auxiliary to the government and as a humanitarian organization commits itself to the attainment of our mission to bring timely, efficient and compassionate humanitarian assistance to the most vulnerable through the collaboration with all essential sectors in the society. We believe that academe sector plays a very vital role in the above aspect thus, your utmost support on this will greatly contribute to its success.

For more information, your secretary may call the undersigned through 0917.580.9526 or Ms. Sarah Banaja at (02) 398-0836.

Sincerely yours,

JENNIFER E. DE GUZMAN
Officer-in-Charge
