Dep Ed Marikina

Dear Dr. Gayola;

Greetings of peace!

We know that as a superintendent you are one with us in the pursuit of a better and meaningful life for our OFW children, so in this context we believe that you will support our forthcoming activities which aims to empower our youth and see their potentials through various activities such as:

This is a follow up letter on the November letter we sent you.

1) The Search for Ten Outstanding Sons and Daughters of OFW Student Achievers Award (TOSDOS) which aims to bring out the academic excellence of a student. Please see attached explanation and process to join. Deadline of submission of entries is up to end of December. The pre qualification will be held 25 January 2020 and the final diocesan competition and awarding will be on 8 February 12-6 pm at Antipolo Immaculate Conception School (AICS), Antipolo City.

Deadline for documents submission is 20 January. For Antipolo schools, drop off is Antipolo Cathedral, Social Action look for Chit or Tess; for Marikina, San Mateo, Montalban is St. Paul of the Cross Parish, look for Mai; for Rizal area, St Jerome Parish, look for Jessie.

We will announce the 10 winners in the 25 January, same with Migration Quiz Bee winners.

2) The Migration Quiz Bee will be held on 25 January 2020. There will be two (2) categories, junior high school and senior elementary level. Please see attached mechanics. The elementary level will be in the morning 8-12 noon, while the high school level will be 1-5 p.m. Only merienda will be served both in the morning and afternoon, so the morning participants need to bring their own "baon".

Hoping for your continued participation.

Thank you.
