Dear Ms. Gayola:

With the invaluable assistance extended to our Office by the Department of Education (DepEd), the conduct of last year's role play competition dubbed as "Dulaang Pangmamimili", was deemed a success.

Fueled with our commitment to sustain programs and activities that will further reinforce the promotion and strengthening of consumer welfare and protection, the Department of Trade and Industry through the Consumer Protection and Advocacy Bureau (CPAB) will hold, for this year, a re-run of the said competition as part of the celebration of the 21st Consumer Welfare Month (CWM) that carries the theme "Making Digital Marketplaces Fairer" which seeks to address the issues and challenges in buying products and services online.

Relative thereto, we have sought the assistance of the DepEd- National Capital Region in disseminating the mechanics of the competition to secondary schools through the attached DepEd Advisory No. 95 series of 2018.

The competition is open to all high school students in Metro Manila, both public and private, with proper endorsement from their respective schools. There should only be one (1) entry per school division, either from public or private school, with proper endorsement from the Superintendent of the school division. The school division may conduct their own elimination round.

In this light, we would like to request the kind assistance of your Schools Division in disseminating the attached mechanics of the competition to secondary schools.

For further clarification, you may get in touch with Ms. Elsie D. Raquino and Ms. Catherine B. Diza at 7913152/7510384 local 2229 or email us at cpab-cpad@dti.gov.ph, elsieraquino@dti.gov.ph and CatherineDiza@dti.gov.ph

We look forward for your favorable response and usual cooperation on this activity/partnership request.

Kindly acknowledge upon receipt hereof.

Thank you.
