TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR CAREER ADVOCATES

I. Policy Context

1. Education Act of 1982 stipulates that "students and pupils in all schools shall enjoy ... the right to school guidance and counseling services for decisions and selecting the alternatives in fields of work suited to his potentialities" (Section 9.3). The exercise of this right is supported by the Department of Education (DepEd) through its various guidance and counseling policies and programs.

2. The Guidance and Counseling Act of 2004 (Republic Act [RA] No. 9258) professionalized the practice of guidance and counseling. The law provides that the profession "involves the use of an integrated approach to the development of a well-functioning individual primarily by helping him/her to utilize his/her potentials to the fullest and plan his/her future in accordance with his/her abilities, interests and needs. It includes functions such as counseling subjects, particularly subjects given in the licensure examinations, and other human development services" (Section 3-a).

3. In 2013, major educational reforms were introduced through the Enhanced Basic Education Act of 2013 (RA 10533). One of the salient features of the K to 12 Basic Education Program is the introduction of Career Guidance. The law stipulates that "[t]o properly guide the students in choosing the career tracks that they intend to pursue, the DepEd, in coordination with the DOLE, the TESDA and the CHED, shall regularly conduct career advocacy activities for secondary level students" (Section 9). Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 27 of RA 9258, the Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR) of RA 10533 specifies that "career advocates shall be allowed to conduct career advocacy activities for secondary-level students of the schools where they are currently employed; provided, that they undergo appropriate capacity building programs developed and implemented by the DepEd, in coordination with the DOLE, TESDA, CHED, PRC, NYC, student organizations, industry associations, guidance and counseling associations, professional associations, and other relevant stakeholders" (Section 19).

4. The IRR of RA 10533 defines Career Advocates as "career and employment guidance counselors who are not registered and licensed guidance counselors. Career advocates include homeroom advisers and teachers of all learning areas who will implement career advocacy activities" (Section 19); while Career Advocacy Activities refer to "activities that will guide secondary level students in choosing the career tracks that they intend to pursue" and these involve "provision of career information and experiences, advising, coordinating and making referrals, and may include, but are not limited to, career talks, career and job fairs, parents' orientations, and seminar-workshops on career decision-making" (Section 18).

5. DepEd’s Career Guidance Program (CGP) is bolstered by the enactment of RA 11206 or the Secondary School Career Guidance and Counseling Act, which seeks to "institutionalize career guidance and counseling program for students in all public and private secondary schools nationwide" and "equip secondary education students with the capability to make educated career decisions and expose them to relevant labor markets" (Section 3).
II. Roles and Responsibilities of Career Advocates

6. The IRR of RA 10533 (Section 20-g) mandates DepEd to designate Career Advocates at the school level. To guide the implementation of the Career Guidance Program (CGP) and ensure the smooth coordination of the program across governance levels, the roles and responsibilities of Career Advocates are defined as follows:

   a) Assist the Guidance Counselor in planning and implementing the CGP, which includes the following:
      - Career orientation
      - Career assessment/evaluation of learners

      - NCAE results discussion and referral as needed

   e) Support the Guidance Counselor in the monitoring and evaluation of the implementation of the CGP.

III. Qualifications and Attributes of Career Advocates

7. The Career Advocate-designate should be a regular-permanent DepEd employee with the following basic qualifications and attributes:
