Dr. Wilfredo E. Cabral
Regional Director
Department of Education – National Capital Region

Dear Dr. Cabral:

Greetings!

The Agapay, Kalinga at Kwentong Alay ng mga Pharmaceutico (AKKAP) is a non-profit organization recognized by the College of Pharmacy, University of the Philippines Manila. It is composed of pharmacy students, educators, and professionals who are one in promoting optimum healthcare through emotional upliftment of pediatric patients battling chronic diseases and cancer. It also aims to inculcate moral values and health concepts among children in communities within Metro Manila.

In keeping with our commitment, AKKAP will hold its 11th Storytelling Contest for Elementary and Junior High School Students. The same guidelines still apply from our previous letter; however, we shall change the time and date from March 01, 2019 (Friday), 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM to March 15, 2019 (Friday), 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM due to some logistical problems. It shall also still bear the “Wastong Kaalaman at Pamamaraan, Mahalaga sa Pagtaguyod ng Kalusugan!” at E.T. Yap Auditorium, UP Manila.

It has been our aim since our first storytelling contest in 2007 to reach out more students and expose them to the art of storytelling. In this regard, we would like to request your high office the accreditation of AKKAP’s 11th Storytelling Contest. Sending this change in our schedule to the different elementary and high schools in Metro Manila will greatly them be advised of the changes, allowing them more than ample time to prepare.

We are hoping for your kind and favorable response to our changes in schedule. We would also appreciate communication through the numbers below should the new event schedule be approved. Thank you very much and God bless us all.

Sincerely yours,

Miguel Pedro T. Laki
