Dear Dr. Cabral,

First off, we wish to thank you and your office for your magnanimous response to our request for endorsement to the field of the second run of the Family Life Education Certificate Course (FLE) of the Institute for Marriage and Development (IMFD) of the University of Asia and the Pacific.

We wish to confirm the Open House (Orientation) for the NCR-guidance counsellors scheduled per our agreement for Thursday, 31 May, from 1:30 to 5:00 p.m., at Room 401 (4th floor) at APEC Communication Building (ACB) of the University of Asia and the Pacific, Pearl Drive, Ortigas Center, Pasig City 1605.

Given the intention and direction of the course that runs for 20 Saturdays, from 9:00 to 5:00 p.m., the participants will be equipped with the wherewithal to foster and promote family mentoring and coaching, and even family development initiatives, in their respective school milieus. The course will commence on September 1, 2018. We wish to suggest that the applicants be those with native interest in fostering family life among the students and parents of the school system. The participants of the first run have appreciated the deliberate and methodical stress on foundational principles and experience-based research and development approaches to the mission of preserving family and family life.

The regular fee of the course has been pegged at PHP 40,000, inclusive of handouts, incidental materials, snacks, and meals for 20 Saturdays. Twenty participants from the public school system, however, shall be awarded a partial scholarship of PHP 20,000 each. We will be interviewing the interested applicants.

Again, we reiterate our gratitude to the DepEd NCR for the support of our little endeavor to help ensure human capital development via the family. This would give Secretary Briones so much joy. We would appreciate to receive the list of the names of the guidance counselors and their respective schools, and contact numbers. Warmest personal regards!

Respectfully yours,

Dr. Severina M. Villegas
