Adult learning opportunities in the Girl Scouts of the Philippines (GSP) provides individual enrichment and leadership development opportunities that equip its volunteers with knowledge and skills essential in extending service to the girls. In all of the 79 years of GSP it has been validated as the best partner of the Department of Education in the values formation and character building of girl-leaners. Hence, we trust that training our teachers is one of best measures to retain the strength of this partnership. Having said, we are pleased to offer Three essential courses on September 13-15, 2019 at Parang Elementary School.

With reference to the above, may we kindly implore your endorsement and official permission for our teachers and troop leaders to take the course appropriate for them based on the following:
