Dear Dr. Gayola;

Greetings of peace!

We know that as a superintendent you are one with us in the pursuit of a better and meaningful life for our OFW children, so in this context we believe that you will support our forthcoming activities which aims to empower our youth and see their potentials through various activities such as:

1) The 3rd Anak-OFW Marizalenio Congress, on November 30, 12:00 – 6:00 p.m at Antipolo National High School (ANHS) which aims to bring leaders of OFW children together so they may see the need of organizing themselves as a sector and honing their abilities to be of service to their fellow youth. You may send at a minimum ten (10) participants.

2) The Search for Ten Outstanding Sons and Daughters of OFW Student Achievers Award (TOSDOSA) which aims to bring out the academic excellence of a student. Please see attached explanation and process to join. Deadline of submission of entries is up to end of December. The pre qualification will be held 17 January 2020 and the final diocesan competition and awarding will be on 31 January 2020.

3) The Migration Quiz Bee will be held on 17 January 2020. There will be two (2) categories, junior high school and senior elementary level. Please see attached mechanics.

4) Marizalenio Logo Contest, deadline of submission 28 November 2019 at ANHS, Social Service Cathedral Office. Please see attached guidelines.

Hoping for your continued participation.

Thank you.
